

GROWTH AND SUSTAINABILITY:
HOW WOMEN ARE MAKING A DIFFERENCE

THE INAUGURAL MEETING OF THE WOMEN'S FORUM ASIA

Shanghai, the Pudong Shangri La hotel 15-17 May 2008

Social responsibility is the underlying trend guiding the discussions at the inaugural meeting of the Women's Forum Asia

Public program as of 13.05.08

Wednesday 14 May
17.00-21.30	Pre-registration of participants at the Shangri La Hotel
18.30 -20.00	Inaugural evening of the Women's Forum Asia Shanghai Urban Planning Museum In the presence of a vice-Mayor of Shanghai municipality
Thursday 15 May
08.00 onwards	Registration of participants Shangri La Hotel 3 rd Floor at the registration desk
09.00- 09.20 Plenary Hall 1+2	Welcome to the participants In the presence of a representative of Shanghai municipality Aude ZIESENISS DE THUIN , Founder and President, The Women's Forum for the Economy and Society, France MU Hong , Deputy International Director, All China Women's Federation, People's Republic of China
09.20-10.45 Plenary Hall 1+2	Opening plenary Growth and sustainability: a must, an opportunity Asia is confronting a crucial challenge in sustaining over the next 15 years the high growth levels it needs to achieve full economic take off and meet the rising expectations of its people. This challenge entails achieving a much better use of raw materials and natural resources, preparing already its societies and economies for the fast approaching deadline when the working age population will stop growing and the process of demographic aging will start, and of course implementing development policies that will be much more environment friendly. How can these challenges not only be met but be also transformed into new

	opportunities? Chair: Maria Livanos CATTUI, Member of the Board of Directors, Petroplus Holdings; Vice-Chair, International Crisis Group, Switzerland Discussion leaders: Bruno LAFONT, Chairman and CEO, Lafarge, France Katherine TSANG, CEO China, Standard Chartered Bank, People's Republic of China ZHU Min, Vice-President & CFO, the Bank of China, People's Republic of China
10.45-11.15 Foyer	Networking break
11.15-12.30 Plenary Hall 1	Plenary session in parallel Women and the economic development process: a new dimension All countries in the world are today facing the necessity to integrate their female population even more in their economic life. The ever growing need to tap innovative talent, the pressures created by the ageing of populations, along with the moral imperative of creating equal opportunities for all, are among the factors pushing for this greater integration. How does this translate into economic reality? How are women contributing to expand the scope and accelerate the pace of economic development? What kind of policies can help optimize women's role? Chair: Eithne KENNEDY, Founding partner, Avenir Holdings Pte Ltd, Singapore Discussion leaders: CHEN Li, CEO, Shanghai Xinli Decoration Company, People's Republic of China GOH Euleen, Chairman, Singapore International foundation & former CEO, Standard Chartered Bank, Singapore –CONFIRMED Melanne VERVEER, Co-Founder, Chair & Co-CEO, Vital Voices Global Partnership, United States
11.15-12.30 Plenary Hall 2	Plenary session in parallel China-India: How they are impacting the world The rise of two new economic powerhouses – China and India –is significantly reshaping the global economic and business scene. Chinese and Indian companies are becoming in many areas formidable competitors, challenging the traditional supremacy that Western or Japanese corporation enjoyed so far. As many commentators speak today of the 21st century being the “Asian Century”, how will the rise of

	the two Asian giants impact on the way the global economy function? How will it impact on economic rule-setting? What are the implications of this economic power shift on international markets? Chair: Liz PADMORE, Independent Consultant & Director and Associate Fellow, Oxford Business School, United Kingdom Discussion leaders: Valérie NIQUET, Director, Asia Center, French Institute of International Studies IFRI, France Clyde PRESTOWITZ, President, The Economic Strategy Institute, United States
12.45-14.30 China Hall	Luncheon Keynote address: The Women's Revolution of the 21st Century: the business, social and political sides of it Chair: Michel LANDEL, CEO, Sodexo, France Keynote: Yue-Sai KAN, Founder of Yue-Sai Cosmetic and Chairman of House of Yue-Sai, People's Republic of China
14.45-16.15 Plenary Hall 2	Session in parallel Micro finance as a boost for women's integration: breaking the constraints to leverage the benefits The contribution of microfinance to global development is now well recognized for its innovative methods of providing financial services to disenfranchised segments of the population, particularly women in rural areas. Its success in permitting the poor and unemployed embark on entrepreneurial and self-employment projects is global and microcredit is quickly becoming an important international tool to help integrate women into in a nation's economic life. How can its social and economic benefits be expanded? How can the practice of microfinance be further developed in China and Asia? Chair: Anita PRATAP, Writer & independent documentary film-maker, Norway Discussion leaders: Chandra Shekhar GHOSH, Founder & CEO, Bandhan, India Mary Ellen ISKENDERIAN, President and CEO, Women's World Banking, United States XIE Qiong, Head of the Qinghai Provincial Women's Federation, People's Republic of China

14.45-16.15 Breakout 1	Session in parallel More women at the top: What can we learn from best practices to move forward faster? The latest achievements of women at the academic level have not been matched by a similar shift with regards to top management positions: they are still struggling to surmount the glass ceiling. Obstacles to the professional advancement of educated women are often rooted in corporate culture, gender biases, and stereotypes. What policies are needed to ensure a more equal distribution of top-management position and how can this translate to more women at the top? Chair: Maria Livanos CATAUI, Member of the Board of Directors, Petroplus Holdings; Vice-Chair, International Crisis Group, Switzerland Discussion leaders: Dominique HერიARD DUBREUIL, Chair of the Board, Rémy Cointreau, France LIEN Siaou-Sze, Senior Executive Coach, Mobley Group Pacific, Former Senior Vice President Asia Pacific and Japan Region, Hewlett-Packard, Singapore Evelyne SEVIN, Partner & Head of Professional Development, Egon Zehnder International, France WANG Jiafen, President, Shanghai Women's Entrepreneurs Association, People's Republic of China
14.45-16.15 Plenary Hall 1	Session in parallel Women business leaders in Asia: how they are changing the business landscape The changing role of women in Asia and their increased integration into the economies and workforce of the region are helping transform the business landscape in Asia. How do Asian women business leaders exercise leadership in their corporation and what are the distinctive features they bring in their approach to leadership? How are they impacting the business structures and corporate cultures in Asia? Chair: Christine OCKRENT, General Director, Audiovisuel Extérieur de la France; Journalist and Author, France Discussion leaders: Béatrix DE RUSSE, Executive Vice President, Intellectual Property and Licensing, Technology Division, Thomson, France MEI Yan, Chief Strategy Officer, News Corporation China and STAR China, People's Republic of China WANG Li, Vice President, the Women's Chamber of Commerce, People's Republic of China

	XU Shuqing, Chairman, Zhongheng Group, People's Republic of China ZHANG Xin, Co-Founder & CEO, SOHO China, People's Republic of China
16.15-16.45 Foyer	Networking break
16.15-16.45 Breakout 1	Special session The young women leader's Program
16.45-18.00	Discovery moments in the Discovery Hall
18.30-20.30 Plenary Hall 1+2	Official opening dinner Keynote address: How climate change will impact Asia's economy Chair: Jaspal Singh BINDRA, CEO Asia, Standard Chartered Bank, Hong Kong Keynote: Rajendra PACHAURI, Chair, International Panel on Climate Change; Director, TERI Institute & 2007 Nobel Laureate, India
Friday 16 May
08.30-09.45 Plenary Hall 1+2	Plenary session China and the world: what do people expect from China and what does China expect from the world? There are a number of myths and concerns in many parts of the world about the rise of People's Republic of China that keep creating frictions and tensions as People's Republic of China accelerates its integration into the world's global systems. At the same time, People's Republic of China wants to avoid that its emergence in the global economy does not generate adverse reactions that would upset the quiet international environment its needs to keep its focus on economic development. What are the kind of issues that need to be addressed, and the misperceptions that need to be corrected to make of the emergence of People's Republic of China a win-win factor for the world? Chair: Liz PADMORE, Independent Consultant & Director and Associate Fellow, Oxford Business School, United Kingdom Discussion leaders: Jaspal Singh BINDRA, CEO Asia, Standard Chartered Bank, Hong Kong Eliot R. CUTLER, Chief Representative & Managing Partner of Beijing office, Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, United States Michel LANDEL, CEO, Sodexo, France

	LIU Ting, Chairman, China Women's Chamber of Commerce; Standing Committee Member, All China Federation of Industry & Commerce; Chairman & President, Asia Link group, People's Republic of China
09.45-10.15 Foyer	Networking break
10.15-11.15 Breakout 1	Workshop Creating a work-life balance in a stressful environment With the growing demands of the workplace, many important areas of our personal lives, and personal time are being neglected in favor of attaining professional goals. The increased work-loads and pressure for results are creating exhausting conditions that are taking their toll. How can the professional ambitions and obligations be balanced in a stressful and competitive work environment to protect the personal sphere? What policies can be implemented to facilitate work-life balance and generate a greater sense of wellness? Chair: Eithne KENNEDY, Founding partner, Avenir Holdings Pte Ltd, Singapore Discussion leaders: Melanie Stewart CUTLER, Psychiatrist, MD, JD, Beijing United Family Hospital, People's Republic of China Clara GAYMARD, National Executive for France, General Electric, France HUNG Huang, CEO of People's Republic of China Interactive Media Group (CIMG), People's Republic of China
10.15-11.15 Plenary Hall 2	Panel discussion Betting on education to reduce the gender gap: what can we learn from best practices? Education systems in Asia and all over the world need to be adjusted to provide women with the kind of skills and mindset that will help their integration in economic life and ensure their employability in a fast changing business environment. How can education policies thus help reduce the gender gap and ensure an optimum match for the skills produced and the job market demand? How can education policies best combine efficiency and social equity? Chair: Anita PRATAP, Writer & independent documentary film-maker, Norway Discussion leaders: Monique CANTO-SPERBER, Director, Ecole Normal Superieure, France Edith SCHLAFFER, Founder & Chairwoman, Women Without Borders, Austria WU Qing, Professor of Beijing Foreign Studies University; Director, The

	Cultural Development Center for Rural Women & Board Chair of Changping Practical Skills Training Center for Rural Women; Deputy Beijing Municipal/Haidian District People's Con-gresses, People's Republic of China
10.15-11.30 Plenary Hall 1	Session in parallel Preparing for China's urban billion If current trends hold, nearly one billion people will live in China's cities by 2025. But, of the 350 million new urban residents, about 240 million will be migrants. They will exert enormous demands for public resources. Pressures to maintain social cohesion will become acute. What role will women play in the development of China's future cities? How can women play a bigger and more central role to balance social progress amidst a background of economic plenty? Chair: WEI Rebecca, Principal, McKinsey Greater China Office & Leader, McKinsey Women Initiative in Asia-Pacific, People's Republic of China Discussion leaders: PAN Shiyi, Co-Founder & Chairman, SOHO China, People's Republic of China QIAN Jingjing, Director for Sustainable Cities Project, China Program, Natural Resources Defense Council, United States ZHENG Shiling, Vice-President of the Architectural Society of China & Professor of Architecture, Tongji University – CONFIRMED
10.15-11.45 Breakout 2	Women's Forum CEO Forum Building the next generation of business leadership, the challenge of developing talent Chair: WAN Alex, President, China CEO Roundtable, People's Republic of China Discussion leaders: Sandeep BAHL, General Manager China, Northwest Airlines, People's Republic of China Wing-Dar KER, General Manager, Asia Pacific and Greater China Region, Customer Service and Support, Microsoft, People's Republic of China Gregg TATE, VP, HR & Knowledge Management, Adidas Group Region Asia-Pacific Barry QUAN, President, Applied Materials (China) Holdings Co., Ltd., People's Republic of China Vivien JIANG, Partner, Deloitte China, People's Republic of China May FARID, Program Officer, Badi Foundation, People's Republic of China Ying YEH, Chairman, Greater China Region, Eastman Kodak Company, People's Republic of China Victoria JIN, Head of Technology, Vodafone China, People's Republic of

	China Alexandra LAN, Co-founder, Human Capital Group, People's Republic of China Jean LIN, Human Resources Director, Applied Materials (China) Holdings Co., Ltd, People's Republic of China Lyn KOK, Managing Director, Head, Financial Institutions, China & General Manager, Beijing, People's Republic of China Jan Staël VON HOLSTEIN, Founder & Co-Chairman, The Network with a Silver Lining, People's Republic of China Lars ANDREASSON, Sweden Counsel General in Shanghai, People's Republic of China
11.30-12.30	Discovery moments in Discovery Hall
12.45-14.30 Qianchun	Luncheons in parallel Can Chinese women be considered as men's future? Chair: Gerald LAMA, President Asia Pacific, Baxter, People's Republic of China Keynote: Sandrine CHENIVESSE, Doctor of Religious and Cultural Anthropology, Europe-Asia Research Institute, Aix-Marseille University, France
12.45-14.30 Qingdao	Luncheon in parallel Energy saving, energy efficiency Chair: PU June, Head of Human Resources, Schneider Electric, People's Republic of China Keynote: Serge SALAT, Architect, Urban Planner & Director Sustainable Cities Centre, France
12.45-14.30 Shanghai	Luncheon in parallel Cinema & the evolution of Chinese society Chair: Alastaire CAMPBELL, President China, Thomson, People's Republic of China Keynote: ZHANG Lola, Film Producer, Chinese New Cinema, the Yunnan New Film Project, People's Republic of China
12.45-14.30	Luncheon in parallel

Dalian	The place of Chinese art in the international art market: a must, an opportunity? Chair: Caroline PUEL, Asia Bureau Chief, Le Point, People's Republic of China Keynote: CHENG Xin Dong, founder and director Xin Dong Cheng Space for Contemporary Art, People's Republic of China
12.45-14.30 Chenyang	Luncheon in parallel The way the Chinese society is changing Chair: Christine OCKRENT, General Director, Audiovisuel Extérieur de la France; Journalist and Author, France Keynote: TIAN Wei, Host of Dialogue, CCTV, People's Republic of China
12.45-14.30 Breakout 1	Luncheon in parallel China's changing investment landscape Chair: YAN Lan, Vice Chairman, Women's Forum Asia; Partner & Chief Representative of the Beijing Office, Gide Loyrette Nouel, People's Republic of China Keynote: ZHANG Lanlan, Managing Director, Research Department; Leader & Chief Analyst, Industry Research Group, & Leader, Strategic Research Group, China International Capital Corporation Limited CICC, People's Republic of China
12.45-14.30 Beijing	Luncheon in parallel The Olympic Games: beyond the Olympics Chair: Anita PRATAP, Writer & independent documentary film-maker, Norway Keynote: ZHANG Lan, President of South China Beauty, People's Republic of China
14.30-16.00 Breakout 2	Shanghai Women's Federation Shanghai Expo 2010: A win win project

	ZHANG Lili, Chair of Shanghai Women Federation, People's Republic of China Aude ZIESENISS DE THUIN, Founder and President, The Women's Forum for the Economy and Society, France WANG Jiafen, President of the Shanghai Entrepreneurs Association, People's Republic of China Harumi SAKAMOTO, Vice Chairperson, Japan Association for World Expo in 2006 and President, The Distribution Systems Research Institute, Japan José FRECHES, President of COFRES, the French Pavillion for the 2010 Expo, France
14.45-15.45	Discovery moments in Discovery Hall
16.00-17.15 Plenary Hall 1	Session in parallel Leadership, woman style Are there specific attributes to the way women exercise leadership? Women business leaders discuss their style of leadership and what they see as the distinctive features of their approach to leadership. Chair: Eithne KENNEDY, Founding partner, Avenir Holdings Pte Ltd, Singapore Discussion leaders: CHENG Grace, Managing Director & Country Manager for Greater China, Russell Reynolds, People's Republic of China KIM Sung-Joo, Chairperson & CEO, Sungjoo Group and MCM, Republic of Korea LIN Lynn, Executive Director, Global IT Infrastructure Services, Lenovo, People's Republic of China Emma WALMSLEY, Vice President Consumer products Division, L'Oreal China, People's Republic of China
16.00-17:15 Plenary Hall 2	Workshop How can we leverage IT to improve daily life and business efficiency? Information technology is changing the way we live and work – it is being used to improve efficiency in all sectors of the economy and improve daily life. Thus, lessening the existing digital divide can provide an impetus for development. While new paths to higher standards of living are opened by technological leapfrogging, societies must learn to better leverage their technology to optimize development? What kind of policies will ensure improved efficiency and what outcomes can be expected? Chair: Maria Livanos CATTAUI, Member of the Board of Directors, Petroplus Holdings; Vice-Chair, International Crisis Group, Switzerland

	Discussion leaders: Anita GURUMURTHY, Founding Member & Co-Director, IT for Change, India LEONG Yee-May, Senior Vice-President, APAC, Orange Business Services, Singapore YU Yu, CEO, Dangdang.com, People's Republic of China
16.00-17.15 Breakout 1	Session in parallel Improving corporate governance to advance sustainability in China All over Asia there is a growing emphasis on the need to implement higher standards of corporate governance. What are the kind of structures and practices that are the most conducive to high standards of governance? Are international standards of corporate governances reshaping corporate practices around the world, how is corporate governance linked to ensuring corporate sustainability? Chair: Liz PADMORE, Independent Consultant & Director and Associate Fellow, Oxford Business School, United Kingdom Discussion leaders: Sian HERBERT-JONES, Group CFO, Sodexo, France Katherine TSANG, CEO China, Standard Chartered Bank, People's Republic of China
17.15-17.45 Foyer	Networking break
17.45-19.00 Plenary Hall 1+2	Plenary session What women leaders can do to create a culture of corporate social responsibility Globalization – and the growing clout of global corporations – has generated a debate about the role of business in society. Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) must be framed in the larger context of the growing expectations of society towards business. What role can women play in helping bridge the divides that globalization is generating? What are the best ways for companies to integrate CSR into their corporate cultures and what can women leaders do to help promote a CSR culture? Co-Chair : Christine OCKRENT, General Director, Audiovisuel Extérieur de la France; Journalist and Author, France WANG Yuan, Director General, China Development Bank, People's Republic of China Discussion leaders:

	CHEN Ying, Deputy Director General, People's Republic of China Enterprise Confederation, People's Republic of China Pierre COHADE, President, Asia Pacific Region, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company HU Karen, Director of Corporate Affairs & Corporate Social Responsibility, AIG General Insurance Company China Ltd., People's Republic of China Marcia SILVERMAN, Global CEO, Ogilvy Public Relations Worldwide, United States YU Xiaoping, President, China Development Bank of Shenzhen, People's Republic of China
19.00-19.30	Awards Meet the new Asian entrepreneurs: The Cartier Women's Initiative Awards Discover the business projects of three Asian entrepreneurs who will be competing for the 2008 Cartier Women's Initiative Awards next October at the Global Women's Forum in Deauville. Created by the Women's Forum in partnership with Cartier, McKinsey and INSEAD business school, the Cartier Women's Initiative Awards is an international entrepreneurship contest awarding each year five winners, one from each continent.
19.30-21.30	Cartier Women's Initiative Awards Cocktail dinner
Saturday 17 May
08.30-09.45 Plenary Hall 1	Panel discussion Beware of the wealth divide: sharing the benefits of growth to make it sustainable The widening gap in wealth distribution among individuals, among provinces and between urban and rural areas has become one of China's crucial issues and is now top priority for the country's leaders who recognize that China's social stability is at stake in confronting this challenge. What kind of policies are put in place? How can they be expected to work and in what timeframe? Chair: Anita PRATAP, Writer & independent documentary film-maker, Norway Discussion leaders: Martine DURAND, Deputy Director for Employment, Labor & Social Affairs, OECD, France SONG Lina, Professor of Economic Sociology and Social Policy, The University of Nottingham, United Kingdom ZUO Xiaolei, Chief Economist, China Galaxy Securities Company Limited, People's Republic of China
08.30-09.45	Panel discussion

Breakout 1	Water: the real crisis ahead As we all focus on meeting global energy needs in view of dwindling fossil fuel reserves, an even more acute crisis is already unfolding: the water crisis. The impact of climate change, growing demand, and urbanization is beginning to generate acute shortages in some parts of China as in many countries around the world. Water scarcity is already impacting livelihoods and food production. What can be done to address this crisis? What kind of policies and changes in behavior and lifestyle are required? Chair: Maria Livanos CATAUI, Member of the Board of Directors, Petroplus Holdings; Vice-Chair, International Crisis Group, Switzerland Discussion leaders: Laurence BOISSON DE CHAZOURNES, Professor & Head of the Department of International Law and International Organization, Faculty of Law, University of Geneva, Switzerland CHEN Dongmei, Head, WWF China Climate & Energy Programme, People's Republic of China LIAO Sheri Xiaoyi, President, Global Village of Beijing, People's Republic of China
08.30-09.45 Plenary Hall 2	Session in parallel How can China prepare for the fast coming demographic changes: building the social systems that will ensure sustainability China's population growth will start decelerating by 2015 and the percentage of people over 60 in the country's population will double over the next 25 years. How will China adjust to the fast changing demographic shifts? What kind of social and economic policies will have to be created over the next 5 to 10 years to ensure economic and social sustainability? What can China learn from other countries' experiences? Chair: YAN Lan, Vice Chairman, Women's Forum Asia; Partner & Chief Representative of the Beijing Office, Gide Loyrette Nouel, People's Republic of China Discussion leaders: LI Bao Ku, Vice-Ministre of Civil Affairs, People's Republic of China MA Carol, Research Fellow of the Asia-Pacific Institute of Aging Studies (APIAS), Lingnan University, Hong Kong Janet WONG, Regional Programme Specialist, UNIFEM East and Southeast Asia, Thailand
09.45-10.15 Foyer	Networking break

10.15-11.30 Plenary Hall 1	Panel discussion Financial markets: the morning after the subprime crisis The subprime crisis has sent shockwaves throughout global financial systems. Beyond the immediate impact, what are the lessons, what are the longer term implications for financial markets and economies in developed countries as well as in emerging market ones. Chair: Lee MILLER, Editor-at-Large, Bloomberg News, Thailand Discussion leaders: FANG Xing Hai, Director-General, Financial Services Office, the Shanghai Metropolitan Government, People's Republic of China ULRICH Jing, Managing Director & Chairman, China Equities, JPMorgan, People's Republic of China LING Huawei, Chief of Financial Desk & Senior Editor, Caijing Magazine, People's Republic of China ZHENG Yeeli Hua, Executive Director Asia-Pacific, NYSE-EURONEXT, People's Republic of China
10.15-11.15 Plenary Hall 2	Keynote speech in parallel Confucianism and Taoism: The impact on Chinese society Chair: Eithne KENNEDY, Founding partner, Avenir Holdings Pte Ltd, Singapore Keynote speech : YU Dan, Professor & Vice President of College Art & Communication, Beijing Normal University, People's Republic of China
11.30-12.30	Discovery moments in Discovery Hall
12.45-14.30 Plenary Hall 1+2	Closing luncheon Keynote address: Making a 6 billion people economy sustainable Chair: Jacque ROBERTSON, Head of Global Diversity, ING, United States Keynote: Laura D'Andrea TYSON, Professor, Haas Business and Public Policy Group, Haas School of Business, UC Berkeley, United States Closing Speeches: ZHANG Lili, Chair of Shanghai Women Federation, People's Republic of China Aude ZIESENISS DE THUIN, Founder and President, The Women's Forum for

WOMEN'S FORUM
FOR THE ECONOMY & SOCIETY

	the Economy and Society, France
--	---------------------------------