Three words that define a good leader:
Generous, mentor, focused

What is the most rewarding moment of your career to date?

Seeing those who I have mentored succeed in their own careers.

And the most challenging moment of your career?

Acknowledging that I wanted to write a book.

Name one woman who inspires you and why?

The late (great) Katharine Graham. She stepped into a leadership role, leading her family's newspaper "The Washington Post" for two decades (including the Watergate period). Katharine was not expected to take the helm of the publication, but she accepted the challenge, leading with head and heart.

Why did you decide to attend #WFMX17?

To connect with other women in the Americas. And attending the Women's Forum has long been an ambition of mine.

What do you expect from Women's Forum Mexico 2017?

I expect to be inspired to help more women succeed in the pursuit of their ambitions.

What kind of leaders -or who- are you looking forward to meeting at #WFMX17?

If you have made the investment in yourself to attend #WFMX17, I want to meet you.

A book or a film on leadership that you would like to recommend to your fellow delegates?

Katharine Graham's book Personal History (Winner of the 1998 Pulitzer Prize for Biography)

What else do you want delegates to know about you?
