Three words that define a good leader:
Commitment, organized and successful.

What is the most rewarding moment of your career to date?

Change what I thought was the right career path to follow, make a 360-degree change and start achieving my dream.

And the most challenging moment of your career?
Starting all over again.

Name one woman who inspires you and why? Karla Wheelock the first Mexican and Latin-American woman who conquered the Everest.

Why did you decide to attend #WFMX17?

First of all because I went to the Women's Forum Global Meeting in France in 2014. I fell in love with the project and with all these incredible women I met; then we started working as a Delegation here in Mexico to make a difference among women. We became so strong that we decide to do something in our own country.

Did you attend Women's Forum Mexico in 2016?
How did it impact you?

It was beyond my expectations. We worked so hard to make this happen. It was incredible to be part of it.

What do you expect from Women's Forum Mexico 2017?

I expect more than the last year, im sure it would be a total success I hope to have a good time to make networking.

What kind of leaders -or who- are you looking forward to meeting at #WFMX17?

Many of the delegates, especially the ones I already know. I want to know how they have grown since last year.

A book or a film on leadership that you would like to recommend to your fellow delegates?

Lean In by Sheryl Sandberg.

What else do you want delegates to know about you?
