

As President of the Women's Forum and a mother of four, Anne-Gabrielle is deeply committed to taking action to advance the cause of women for generations to come and to get women to thrive in the economy and society. She is a fervent believer that debate and discussion all over the world holds power in spreading female ambition and bringing ideas to existence.

As a Member of the Directoire (Management Board) and Secretary General of Publicis Groupe, Anne-Gabrielle oversees legal affairs, human resources, governance, compliance, internal audit, risk management as well as CSR. She is also a member of the board of ORANGE as Chair of the Governance, Compensation and CSR committee, and a member of the board of SANEF as Chair of the Audit Committee.

Previously, she held positions at the French Treasury and in several ministerial cabinets, notably at the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs. She also worked at Euris/Rallye, at the SNCF and as a Senior Banker at Société Générale Corporate & Investment Banking.

Anne-Gabrielle is a former member of the Inspection Générale des Finances and an alumna of the Ecole Nationale d'Administration (ENA). She is a graduate of Paris business school ESCP and of Sciences Po. She holds a postgraduate degree in Law. On a more personal note, Anne-Gabrielle finds inspiration in violin, reading and mountain hiking.
